Draft Board Decoder

The FantasyDrafthelp.com draft board contains all the relevant information you need right at your fingertips.

* Players are color-coded by their value by round in a 6-team draft. 1st round is gold, 2nd round silver and 3rd round is bronze.

* The "Exp" column shows how players ranked on an "Experts Draft Board" compilation of other leading industry sources. The "UQB" column shows how each player performed on our standard deviation from the mean statistic in 2020 (stat details to the right).

* The placement of each driver in the final standings for the past three seasons is listed, with numbers shaded in grey indicating the Chase for the Championship. Also listed are the number of wins, Top 10s and pole positions in 2020.

Our "UQB" (Ultimate Quantitative Baseline) category on our draft board calculates the standard deviation from the mean for all drivers. In simple English, imagine a spectrum going across from left to right, with negative numbers on the left side, a "zero" in the middle and positive numbers on the right side. We use this statistic for football, baseball, basketball, hockey and hoops as well as NASCAR. For NASCAR, we use a breakdown of how each driver has fared on each track type, with the numbers weighted proportionally to reflect the number of races held on each track type.

A driver's performance in each category is plotted on one of these spectrums, with the most valuable players putting up most of their numbers on the most of their numbers on the positive side. Then, we add up the totals of every category, positive and negative. By using this tool, we can identify not merely how they performed, but how valuable their performances were in each category. Truly, this statistic serves as the ultimate baseline for the previous season's production.

Full Spectrum of Racing Coverage

You are reading the latest incarnation of what had once been known as FANTASY NASCAR DRAFTOLOGY. The horizon has now been broadened with the inclusion of IndyCar, Formula One and NHRA draft boards and suggested league guidelines. We have covered all of these sports previously as part of our niche sports banner. We are proud to present our unified racing coverage here, demonstrating how to win with value everywhere. These strategies are universal across different sports.

Fantasy NASCAR Suggested League Guidelines

The best way to organize a league is by allocating talent through a six-round standard serpentine draft with six owners. Teams accumulate the sum total of the NASCAR points earned by each driver throughout the course of the season, with no transactions made. Additionally, bonus points are awarded for the top five racers in the final standings: 1. 1000 points 2. 750 points 3. 500 points 4. 250 points 5. 125 points.

Ultimate Fantasy Racing League Guidelines

This ultimate racing game combines the draft boards for NASCAR, Indy Car, F1 and the four NHRA circuits. A league would ideally consist of five owners drafting 15 drivers (two from each of the above-mentioned circuits and one additional "wild card" pick. Points are awarded as follows: 50 points for winning a circuit championship, 40 points for 2nd place, 32 points for 3rd place, 24 points for 4th place and 15 points for 5th place. The first tiebreaker is the number of championships and the 2nd tiebreaker is 2nd place finishes.

SUGGESTED LEAGUE GUIDELINES

We recommend utilizing a four-round standard serpentine draft with four owners (or a three-round serpentine draft with five owners) with points being awarded based on the IndyCar scoring system. There would be an additional 50-point bonus to the team that contains the series champion for the year.

SUGGESTED LEAGUE GUIDELINES

We recommend utilizing a nine-round standard serpentine draft with five owners (or a five-round serpentine draft with six, seven or eight owners) with points being awarded based on the NHRA scoring system. For the nine-round format, two drivers from each division must be selected with one additional "wild card" selection at the discretion of each owner; for the five-round format, one driver from each division must be selected with one additional "wild card" per team. There would be an additional 250-point bonus to any team that contains a series champion for the year.

Don't Be That Guy in Fantasy NASCAR This Year!

Don't Be That Guy that "marks out" for his favorite driver. If that driver happens to be a good "value pick" on the board, so be it. But if you reach for a driver for personal reasons, you'll live to regret it. More than in any other sport, fantasy NASCAR owners make foolish picks for reasons of personal fandom and smart competitors always benefit ... Don't Be That Guy that doesn't pay enough attention to track types when drafting. You can't win without a number of drivers who run strong on intermediate-length tracks, because they account for approximately 2/3 of the races — but keep your team balanced overall aside from that.
